

All participants entered into a draw for a free CHEP Good Food Box!

Participants Wanted!

How Can Urban Agriculture Work For You?

How do you think we could bring more urban agriculture to your neighbourhood?

Come share your ideas at your neighbourhood's community meeting!

Thursday, July 28th, 7pm, Ward 2: Wolf Willow Co-housing

Tuesday, August 9th, 6:30pm, Ward 10: Alice Turner Library

Thursday, August 11th, 1:30pm, Ward 8: Cliff Wright Branch Library

Monday, August 15th, 5:30pm, Ward 9: Cliff Wright Branch Library,

Saturday, August 20th, 1pm, Ward 3: Cosmo Civic Centre,

Monday, August 22nd, 7pm, Ward 1: Saskatoon Community Service Village

Wednesday, August 24th, 6pm, Ward 4: Cosmo Civic Centre

Thursday, August 25th, 7pm, Ward 7: Saskatoon Unitarian Church

Tuesday, August 30th, 6:30pm, Ward 6: J.S. Wood Library

Thursday, September 1st, 6pm, Ward 5: Rusty McDonald Library

Are you unsure of what ward you live in? Check out the City of Saskatoon's website:
<https://www.saskatoon.ca/city-hall/mayor-city-councillors/which-ward-do-i-live>

Meetings will last about 90 minutes, and snacks will be provided. All attendees will be entered into a draw to win a CHEP Good Food Box.

Participation is limited to the first 10 respondents per meeting, so register today! To sign up, email us at urban.ag.research.sk@gmail.com or call (306) 966-5429.

These meetings are being held as a part of a research project on urban agriculture through the U of S College of Nursing. Our goal is to create an urban agriculture plan for Saskatoon that can increase access to quality, affordable food. For more information on this project, please contact Wanda Martin by email at wanda.martin@usask.ca, or call (306) 966-5429.

